WAYFARER

SERINO CIGAR CO.

6 YEAR OLD TOBACCOS 100% LONG FILLER • INDIVIDUALLY CELLOPHANED

The Wayfarer name comes from Carson Serino's backpacking trip to Iceland, as a WAYFARER is a backpacker or person who travels by foot. The Wayfarer blend features an Ecuadorian Corojo 99 wrapper on top of a binder from Nicaragua's Jalapa region, as well as Nicaraguan fillers from Esteli and Jalapa. This medium to full bodied cigar produces an exceptional white ash. It's mostly a woody smoke with secondary notes of gingerbread and nutmeg.

TAINO

6 YEAR OLD TOBACCOS

100% LONG FILLER • INDIVIDUALLY CELLOPHANED

The Taíno is a joint effort between father, Anthony Serino and son, Carson Serino. The name pays tribute to the indigenous people of the Caribbean, known as the Taínos who are believed to be the first to smoke tobacco. The cigar features an Ecuadorian Habano wrapper over a Corojo '99 binder from Condega, Nicaragua. It is rounded out with fillers from three regions of Nicaragua; Esteli, Ometepe and Jalapa. Medium bodied cigar loaded with flavors that are reminiscent of your favorite Cuban cigar.

Exquisitely packaged in classic wooden boxes.
